A DAY OF CARNAGE

Boer and Briton In the Bloodiest Battle of the Century.

THOUSANDS WERE ENGAGED,

And the Turgid Waters of the Modder River Were Dyed With Gore.

SLAUGHTER WAS TERRIBLE

Burgers Quitting Their Position After Ten Hours of Fighting.

LADYSMITH REPORTED REDUCED.

Well-Confirmed Despatch That General White's Army Is Being Marched Northward by the Boers, After a Terrific Conflict in Which Hundreds Were Dropped.

London, Nov. 29.—The expected great battle at Modder river has been fought and General Methuen has added another victory to his achievements for the past week. That the Boers defended their positions with all their old-time gallantry is amply proved by General Methuen's despatch and it will probably further be testified to when the list of British casualties is made known.

There appears to be no doubt that General Methuen has gained a real advantage, though the details must be awaited before the full effect of his 10 hours' desperate fighting can be gauged. Presumably the burgher army was on the south bank of the river, but whether, when the Boers retreated, they crossed the river northward or retired in an easterly direction into Orange Free State is unknown. Possibly the Boers had repaired the bridge previously reported destroyed and managed to withstand

GENERAL JOUBERT. GENERAL CRONJE.
The British attack with their rear guard, while their main body escaped over the bridge, the rear guard destroying the bridge behind them. The British, however, appear to have surmounted the difficulties crossing the river and to have seized for themselves a position on the north side of the stream.

This success of the British clears another stage of the road to Kimberley, the siege of which General Cronje must have partially raised in order to give battle to General Methuen. There is little reason to doubt, however, that the Boers will again rally, as heretofore, after a seemingly crushing defeat, unless they have lost their guns, of which there is no mention in the official dispatch. The burghers are understood to have a strong laager at Spytfontein, 14 miles north of the Modder river, so another engagement possibly awaits the British before they can commence the last stage of the 11 miles from Spytfontein to Kimberley, though it is pointed out that General Cronje will thereby run a great risk of being caught between General Methuen and Colonel Kekewich, the British commander at Kimberley.

A belated dispatch from Orange river says General Methuen's troops are advancing under the greatest difficulties, fighting an omnipresent but almost invisible foe.

A special dispatch from Windsor says that General Methuen's despatch to the queen after the battle of Modder river says: "The battle was the bloodiest of the century. The British shelled the enemy out of the trenches and then charged. The result was terrible."

A revised list of the casualties at Belmont shows: Officers killed, 4; wounded, 22; non-commissioned officers and privates killed, 46; wounded, 225, of which number the guards had 35 killed and 159 wounded. A revised list of the casualties sustained by General Hildyard's forces at the battle of Beacon Hill shows: Killed, 13; wounded, 64; missing, 1; prisoners, 8.

GENERAL METHUEN'S REPORT.

Battle at Modder River One of the Fiercest on Record.

London, Nov. 29.—The war office has received the following despatch from General Buller at Cape Town:

"General Methuen reports from Modder River Tuesday, Nov. 28:

"Reconnoitered at 5 a. m. on enemy's position in Modder river and found them strongly entrenched and concealed. No means of outflanking, the river being full. Action commenced with artillery of mounted infantry and cavalry at 5:30. Attacked position in widely extended formation at 6:30 and supported by the artillery found itself in front of the whole Boer force, 8,000 strong, with two large guns, four Krupps, etc.

"After desperate, hard fighting, which lasted 10 hours, our men, without water or food and in the burning sun, made the enemy quit his position. General Pole-Carew was successful in getting a small party across the river.

"I speak in terms of high praise of the conduct of all who were engaged in one of the hardest and most trying fights in the annals of the British army."

FALL OF LADYSMITH.

General White's Army Reported in the Hands of the Boers.

London, Nov. 29.—Well confirmed reports received here say Ladysmith has fallen. The Boers after hard fight forced White to surrender.

The news of the fall of Ladysmith comes by way of The Hague and is generally believed. News by that source before has been reliable. The report is that General Joubert is marching the numerous English prisoners to the north, he having well fortified the bridge at Colenso to prevent a British advance. No report of losses before White surrendered has been received, but the slaughter on both sides, it is said, was great.

The Hague, Nov. 29.—A family at Rotterdam has received from their son, who is in the Transvaal, a telegram reading: "Am all right," which, according to a pre-arranged agreement, signifies: "Ladysmith has fallen."

Great Britain's Protest.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Great Britain has protested vigorously to this government against the organization of expeditions in this country intended, presumably, for the assistance of the Boers.

Lord Pauncefort made the protest at the state department.

Secretary Hay referred Lord Pauncefort to the secretary of war. It is no longer a secret that expeditions of importance are being organized. These organizations, it is said, have common backing and are under the secret auspices of an agent of the Transvaal now in New York. It is understood that there are millions of Dutch and French money behind these filibustering expeditions.

Brush at Kimberley.

Pretoria, Nov. 27.—(Delayed).—General Dutort reports that the British made a sortie from Kimberley and fired on the Boers with artillery and infantry in the darkness. The British sortied where the Bloemhof Boer force was stationed. On our (the Boer) side were 300 men. General Dutort, who was nine miles off, hastened to the assistance of the Bloemhof contingent with 100 men. Nine burghers were killed, 17 wounded, and there were some missing. The British left on the field a private and a sergeant.

Mass For the British Dead.

Rome, Nov. 29.—A requiem mass was celebrated in the English Catholic church here for the repose of the souls of the slain in South Africa. The church was filled with English and Americans, including the ambassadors of Great Britain and the United States. The Pope sent his blessings.

Nothing From Maerum.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Nothing has been heard from United States Consul Macrum at Pretoria for the past five days. The state department would like to be able to relieve him at his request and will do so if it is possible to send a man through the lines.

Caracas, Venezuela, Nov. 29.—Senor Jose Andrade, the Venezuela minister to the United States, has cabled from Paris his resignation. It was accepted.

LICKED UP A BLOCK.

Electric Spark Starts a Destructive Conflagration In Philadelphia.

LOSS PLACED AT THREE MILLIONS.

Lippincott, the Publisher, Two Big Department Stores and a Dozen Smaller Ones Were Burned Out.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—An electric spark in the basement of Partridge and Richardson's big department store on North Eighth street started a fire that in less than four hours laid in ashes nearly an entire block of business houses and caused an estimated loss of over $3,000,000.

The heaviest losers are: J. B. Lippincott and Company, book publishers, whose big six-story brick, containing rare and valuable plates and machinery, was completely gutted, involving a loss estimated at $2,000,000. The next heaviest loser was Partridge and Richardson, extending south on Eighth street from Filbert, a distance of about 125 feet, and with a depth of 100 feet. Their loss on building and contents is estimated at $600,000. Lit Bros., whose department store adjoins the Lippincott building, estimate their loss at $400,000.

In addition to the big houses mentioned, numerous stores were either gutted or badly damaged. Various other establishments were slightly damaged by smoke and water. The burned district covers nearly an entire block.

Hundreds of men and women have been thrown out of work by the fire. All the losses are probably covered by insurance.

While the entire department was battling with the big conflagration, another fire broke out in the wholesale and retail boot and shoe store of William H. Harris, four blocks away. A half dozen engines were detached from the big fire, but before the firemen had succeeded in extinguishing the flames the place was gutted, causing a loss of $30,000. An adjoining building was damaged by water to the extent of $10,000.

Later and more conservative estimates place the loss at slightly over $2,000,000. Lippincott's loss is reduced to $1,250,000 by the recovery of many of the valuable plates, including those of the American edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica. Strawbridge & Clothier suffered more severely than was at first supposed. Quantities of valuable material were destroyed by fire and much more was ruined by smoke. The loss at this store is now estimated at $50,000.

THREE WOMEN KILLED.

Passenger Train Crashes Into a Stage at a Crossing.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 29.—A Pennsylvania railroad train crashed into a stage at Cranberry crossing, killing Miss Davidson, of Grafton, W. Va., Miss Emma Goeddecke, of Butler, and Mrs. Paisley, of Harwood. Toney Chery, of this city, the driver of the coach, was severely injured.

Senate Financial Bill.

Washington, Nov. 29.—A call has been issued for a meeting of the Republican members of the senate committee on finance in this city on next Saturday. The meeting is to be held for the purpose of considering a general financial bill to be introduced at the approaching session of congress. It is understood Senator Aldrich, chairman of the committee, has prepared a bill on lines agreed upon during the conferences of the Republican membership last summer and that this bill will be the basis of consideration at the meeting.

Silver Republicans to Fuse.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—The sentiment of a majority of the silver Republican executive committee is apparently unanimously in favor of fusion with the Democratic party and the endorsement of their platform and candidates. It is probable that the national committee will meet soon after the meeting of the Democratic national committee has decided on the date of the Democratic convention and will issue the call for the convention to be held on the same date and in the same city as the Democratic convention.

Speed of the Kentucky.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The naval inspection board has completed the calculations in the case of the recent speed trial of the battleship Kentucky and have reported that the actual speed made by the ship was 16.83 knots per hour. These figures are sufficient to warrant the navy department in the preliminary acceptance of the Kentucky.

Cornstalks as Cattle Food.

Washington, Nov. 29.—A very valuable horse and cattle food can now be made from cornstalks. The agricultural department has done a great deal of work with cornstalks in the past year and has developed several valuable uses for them. The new cattle food is made by grinding the dry cornstalks, leaves and tops, to a powder and mixing it with blood or molasses or both, which is pressed into cakes under a hydraulic press and can be shipped as easily as bricks or cordwood. For feeding it is broken up and mixed with water.

To Get Rid of Roberts.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The method of procedure to be adopted by the house of representatives in getting rid of Mr. Roberts, the polygamist representative-elect from Utah, is to be considered at a conference of Republican leaders to be held here Friday. It is thought that Mr. Roberts must be sworn in on his certificate of election and that he can only be unseated by a resolution of expulsion under the constitutional power of the house to expel a member by a two-thirds vote.

Cashier's Alleged Shortage.

St. Louis, Nov. 29.—Arnold Tuschmidt, the missing cashier of the internal revenue department, is said to be short in his accounts over $7,000. A warrant was issued for Tuschmidt's arrest, charging him with having embezzled $7,000. Tuschmidt's books are being thoroughly investigated. It is said the alleged defalcations have been going on since last August. Tuschmidt, it is alleged, made a full confession to Treasury Inspector Gavett, after which he disappeared.

Employes' Stout Demands.

Pittsburg, Nov. 29.—When the scale conference of the National Table Glassware company and the American Flint Glass Workers' union was resumed it was found that the workers, instead of receding from their former demand of 10 per cent. increase, had added to their demands by insisting that the seven non-union factories in the combine should sign the scale and employ union labor. The manufacturers offered a five per cent. advance, but refused to consider the second demand.

Where Are the Managers?

Philadelphia, Nov. 29.—The doors of the home office of the Investors' Trust, doing business exclusively with patrons outside the city and promising large profits on investments, have been closed. Efforts to find Lipman Keene, the president, Charles L. Work, secretary, and Miss M. C. Carson, cashier, were unavailing. The company's plan was to invite the investment of capital, the inducement being held out of interest ranging from 100 to 200 per cent. The firm did a rushing business.

Charged With Lynching.

Dexter, Mo., Nov. 29.—As a result of the William Huff lynching at Bloomfield, on Nov. 16, William and John Demint have been arrested and lodged in jail. True indictments were found against them for the murder of Huff. They are reputable and stand high socially in the county. These are the two men whom Huff recognized and whose names he called out as he was being led from the jail by the mob.

Gridley's Son Placed.

Washington, Nov. 29.—J. P. V. Gridley, a son of the late Charles P. Gridley, who commanded Admiral Dewey's flagship at the battle of Manila, was designated for appointment to a lieutenancy in the marine corps by President McKinley. Young Gridley is too old to enter Annapolis, and the only opening for him in the navy lay in an appointment to the marine corps. Admiral Dewey interested himself in the case.

Wages Advanced.

Fall River, Mass., Nov. 29.—Orders were issued instructing the agent of the Fall River iron works cotton mills in this city to post notices of a 10 per cent. advance in wages, to take effect Monday, Dec. 4. The announcement caused great surprise as the old cotton mills have offered their employees only a five per cent. increase.

Democratic Caucus.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Congressman J. D. Richardson of Tennessee authorized the statement that the Democratic caucus to select candidates for speaker and other officers of the next house will be held at 1 p. m., Saturday.

Fort Scott, Kas., Nov. 29.—John P. Reese, member of the national executive board of the U. M. W. A., sentenced to jail for three months for contempt of the federal court, has refused the offer of United States Judge Williams for special jail privileges at Topeka, saying, "An innocent man has no preference of prisons in which to be unjustly confined."

SHELLED THE ENEMY.

An Important Port Captured by Three American Warships.

MARINES NOW HOLD THE PLACE.

Gilmore and Party Located In an Interior Town What Will Soon Be Invaded—Aguinaldo's Determination.

Manilla, Nov. 29.—A dispatch from Namacpacan, province of Union, dated Nov. 26, says:

The Oregon, Samara and Callao, with 160 bluejackets and marines from the Oregon, captured the port of Vigan, province of South Ilocos, north of here. The Samara and Callao ran close in shore, a few shots were fired, and then the Samara, Callao and Oregon engaged in a sharp bombardment of Vigan. The firing from the shore ceased almost immediately and the sailors and marines, with a field piece, were landed. The navy will hold the town till troops arrive.

It is reported that 1,700 insurgents under Generals Tino and Pilar are massed at Taguden, 10 miles north and it has been concluded to wait at Namacpacan for the rest of the reinforcements.

Aguinaldo passed north through Namacpacan Nov. 21, while General Young was waiting at San Fernando, 20 miles south. He is now believed to be hiding in Abra province. All Aguinaldo's talk was in favor of continuing the war.

The fight in which Colonel Bell defeated and scattered the brigades of General Alejandrino and San Miguel took place on the summit of the mountains west of Mangalore, forming the divide between the Dagupan valley and the ocean. Colonel J. Franklin Bell's regiment, the Thirteenth Infantry, and Fowler's company of the Twenty-third, left Mangalore Monday morning and marched 24 hours with four hours' rest over bare and waterless ridges, along narrow trails and through canons. At daylight, Nov. 28, the troops emerged from a timbered canon upon the divide, running into the Filipinos' advance guard, who retreated to the main body before shooting.

Colonel Bell, who was in advance with the scouts and one company, had the natives in full rout before the main body of his troops arrived, fleeing down the mountain to the swamps between Mangalore and Agutias, leaving 10 dead and many wounded, and abandoning their guns. They were chased through the swamps and thoroughly dispersed. The insurgents numbered 2,000 men.

Admiral Watson has received intelligence to the effect that Lieutenant Gilmore is well, with seven men, 25 miles from Vigan. He received a Meyer code letter from Gilmore by Albert Sosichen, a newspaper artist, who was with Gilmore seven months and escaped. News from insurgents through a Spanish sergeant indicates Urdaneta crew was killed, except the four following: Farley, Green, Powers and Burke. The names of the Gilmore party are Walton, Vandoit, Ellsworth, Briscoe, Anderson, Edwards and Peterson.

Perhaps by this time the American prisoners referred to have already been released. With the naval contingent at Vigan, only 25 miles away to the west, and the army advance probably a little further distant to the southeast, the town of Baguio is nearly surrounded and there is little chance of the escape of the insurgent force there if they attempt to encumber themselves in their retreat with the prisoners.

TROOPS IN CUBA.

On General Wood's Recommendation They Will Be Removed.

Washington, Nov. 29.—General Leonard Wood had a two hours' conference with the secretary of war. After the conference Secretary Root announced the recommendations as to the removal of troops from Cuba had been approved and that the orders would be issued putting them into effect.

Slain by Burglars.

Glenwood, W. Va., Nov. 29.—W. H. Creemans, a wealthy merchant, was found dead at his home here with a bullet hole in his breast. The crime is attributed to burglars.

River News.
The Avalon will pass up to-night for Kanawha river points.

An effort is being made by the White Collar line people to get control of the Coney Island wharfboat where the independent packets land at Cincinnati. The matter will be fought out in the courts.

Some surprise is manifested in certain river quarters at Pittsburgh that more coal was not shipped last week. One operator said that at least 100 light barges should have been got out for Cincinnati and Louisville.

When the new Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Louisville Packet Company starts its boats to running the City of Pittsburgh will have a man in charge whose name is familiar to everyone who has traveled on the river, says an exchange. In selecting Capt. Joe Conlin the owners have made a choice which will surely add much to the popularity of their boat. Capt. Phillips, who gained such a high reputation while in command of the Pittsburgh last year, will probably have charge of the new boat now in construction at Marietta.

Mr. W. T. Berry, Miss Anna Campbell and Miss Eleanor Wallace, teachers of the Fifth ward school, were each presented with a big turkey for Thanksgiving by their pupils yesterday afternoon. The boys and girls in Miss Wallace's room decorated their turkey (a live one) in the national colors, and then a boy took hold of each wing, and two little girls, with lines in hand, marched his turkeyship into the room amid the shouts of the children. Miss Sallie Burrows' pupils presented her with a basket of fruit. The janitor, Mr. Charles Cooper, was not forgotten, receiving a turkey from the teachers.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate the stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50c. at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.

TO BE OPENED TO-DAY.

The Mayslick Library and Reading Room. Brief Addresses—Enjoyable Evening Anticipated.

The "Mayslick Library and Reading Room" movement, started in the summer time and seemingly dormant from that time, has, we are glad to report, through the zeal, enterprise and well-known push of some of our noble hearted and public spirited women of that part of the country, both young and old, and who were the original agitators, had an easy, but sure awakening, though "long deferred." Quietly and without attracting any especial observance these grand women have gone forward, even under discouragement, in the interest of this long-felt want, recognizing its imperative need where so many bright and promising boys and girls are shut off by distance and other difficulties from the advantages offered by an established library and reading room, but influences exactly counter in tendency and outcome are permitted to exist, to thrive. Now is offered an opportunity of better things. A room with good and sufficient light, capacious and well adapted in every way, has been secured from Mrs. Chinn. The furnishing and making ready are under way and every guarantee given that to-day, Thanksgiving day, most appropriate for such an opening, the portals of this reading room are to be thrown wide for the purpose designed. This assurance is given us by the noble band of ladies mentioned, supported by a staff of interested and progressive gentlemen assistants, for we would not have it understood that these are indifferent to what is intended for the betterment of the grown and growing in our midst.

To all friends of the movement and to those who have scarcely grasped the needs of the situation as yet, an invitation most cordial is extended to meet with the Library Association Thanksgiving evening at 5 o'clock. The ladies will endeavor to make the occasion an enjoyable one and so secure your kindly interest in the library movement. Come and learn its nature. Brief addresses will be given by Reverends Gwatkins, Tauhman and Holly. Games will be provided for those who care to engage in them and light refreshments will be served. Altogether an evening both pleasant and profitable will be offered for your acceptance.

MR. "BUD" BERRY, formerly this county, now living at Lexington, is at present in New York City, where he took a fine lot of horses for sale. "Bud" has never enlarged in the literary business beyond writing his experience of a stay of three years in Missouri and Texas, and he got out this work for the purpose of saving a debt, which he couldn't make otherwise, out of a Lexington printer. It was full of wit and humor, in which the gentleman abounds.

REUBEN WARNER, the old colored preacher and carpenter at Washington, now almost a hundred years old and who can tell about all the noted men who used to live there, came out squarely for the Democratic ticket at the recent election, saying his best friends were among the Democrats and he could get favors from them when he couldn't from Republicans. He delights to tell about times and men of long ago, when Hon. Frank Chambers would make one of his famous speeches and Judges Adam Beatty and Walker Reed were on the bench, and when Mr. Chambers could with one word, so long as he stayed there, keep the court house from being taken to Mayville. He says he is out of the Republican party for keeps.

REUBEN WARNER, the old colored preacher and carpenter at Washington, now almost a hundred years old and who can tell about all the noted men who used to live there, came out squarely for the Democratic ticket at the recent election, saying his best friends were among the Democrats and he could get favors from them when he couldn't from Republicans. He delights to tell about times and men of long ago, when Hon. Frank Chambers would make one of his famous speeches and Judges Adam Beatty and Walker Reed were on the bench, and when Mr. Chambers could with one word, so long as he stayed there, keep the court house from being taken to Mayville. He says he is out of the Republican party for keeps.

Dress Goods!

We are going to tell you about some rough black Cheviot, of which we sell more than almost any other. If it were a cloth of conspicuous pattern the fact that anybody else had it would tell against it, but it is a plain black Cheviot, and by the way a very clear, clean, perfect black.

You may have a dress of it and meet Miss Somebody who also would have a dress of it, and neither would know the dresses were alike—the cloth is only a background. $1.25 and $1.50 a yard, fifty-four inches.

Some silk and wool Poplins that have been selling right along at $3 are $1.95; the loss not ours, so we are as happy as you in the price reduction. Another Poplin, more properly a silk and wool epingle, remains at $3, and by the way is exceedingly rich. French Flannels at 50c. a yard. Solid colors in navy, royal and cornflower blue; claret and automobile red; black and brown. The season's fad for shirt waists.

WATSON A. SUDDUTH.

Sudden Death Wednesday of a Well Known Kentucky Lawyer—Funeral To-morrow Morning at Flemingsburg.

[Louisville Post.]

News was received here at noon to-day announcing the death in Shakertown, Mercer County, of Mr. Watson A. Sudduth, the attorney of this city. The particulars were very meager, and the exact cause of his death is not yet known.

The message came by telephone from Mr. E. K. Pennebaker, a law associate of Mr. Sudduth, to Mr. Lawrence Leopold, another member of the firm. Mr. Leopold says that heart disease is thought to have been the cause of death. Mr. Sudduth had frequently complained of pains about the heart and had expressed fear that it would cause his death.

Mr. Sudduth was the attorney for the community of Shakers near Harrodsburg, and left here early in the week to have a conference with them. When he left he was apparently in the best of health and spirits, and the news of his death was a terrible shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Sudduth was forty-five years of age, and was born in Flemingsburg, Ky. He was educated at Centre College, Kentucky, and later studied law. After practicing for a brief time in his native town he removed to this city and soon after formed a partnership with Col. Henry L. Stone, the present City Attorney. The firm of Stone & Sudduth soon became one of the best-known in the State, and continued in existence until a short time ago. When Col. Stone was elected City Attorney Mr. Sudduth took an active interest in his candidacy. The partnership was dissolved a few months ago, and Mr. Sudduth continued the practice of law in conjunction with Mr. Lawrence Leopold and Mr. Ed. Pennebaker.

His wife and three children, George, William and James Sudduth, survive him.

The funeral of Mr. Sudduth will take place to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock at Flemingsburg. He had many friends in Maysville to whom the news of his sudden death came as a shock. Mr. Sudduth was here only a few days ago on legal business.

Mr. Sudduth's wife was Miss Mary McConnell, a niece of Mr. David Willson, of Flemingsburg.

J. S. CHENOWETH'S HEIRS

Bring Suit at Louisville Against Bank of Kentucky for Money He Had on Deposit at His Death.

Suit was entered this week at Louisville against the Bank of Kentucky by the heirs of J. S. Chenoweth to recover $1,236.34 with interest from March, 1866.

The petition alleges that J. S. Chenoweth died in Mason County, March, 1866, and that there has been no administration of his estate.

At the time of his death he had on deposit, it is alleged, in the Bank of Kentucky $1,236.34, but this was not known to the heirs until a short time since.

Then they demanded payment from the bank, which was refused.

The petition further states that no publication of this amount being on deposit was made in any newspaper, as required by law.

At the rate of 6 per cent. the interest would have more than doubled the capital, interest being asked for over thirty-six years. The amount now claimed is about $4,000.

THE ladies of the Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, will hold the only other meeting of this week at the church on to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. It will consist of a consolidated service of to-day's, to-morrow's and Saturday's program. All the ladies of the church are especially invited to be present. Do not forget the thank offering.

The Pearce and Courier passed up this morning at 6 o'clock for Portsmouth, the former leading at this point. They are due down this evening.

ENGLISH TOWN

In Which Every Public Utility is Owned by The People.

[Exchange.]

The town of Huddersfield, Yorkshire, England, stands unique in the world as the only town which absolutely owns itself in every respect. Beginning life in a municipal artisans' dwelling, the young man rides to his work on a municipal train. He gets his gas or electricity from the city. His wife rents a gas stove from the city, purchases her produce from a municipal market, and buys meat that has been prepared by a municipal butcher. Both use the public baths, enjoy the city's parks, and send their children to the city's playgrounds. Their house refuse is moved by the city. When ill they go to the city hospital; or, if unfortunate, to the municipal lodging room. Their letters are collected by a city postman. And in a thousand other ways their daily life comes in close contact with the city government. At last they are buried in a city cemetery. This may be socialism, or it may not be. The citizens are satisfied, and approve of every municipal enterprise.

THE LAFAYETTE DOLLAR.

A Circular From the Commission in Regard to the Sale of This Unique Coin.

Within the next few days there will be struck at the United States mint in Philadelphia the most unique and significant coin issued in modern times. It is the Lafayette dollar authorized by Congress in aid of the Lafayette monument.

This coin, which is a legal tender dollar, bears upon its face in bas-relief a double medallion of the heads of Washington and Lafayette and upon its reverse a miniature reproduction of the equestrian statue of Lafayette used for the monument. The inscription on the dollar explains its purpose (struck in commemoration of monument erected by school youth of United States to General Lafayette, Paris, France, 1900).

The Lafayette dollar thus serves not only to aid the memorial work but forms a new and beautiful tie between the two great republics of Europe and America, and therefore the coin must be regarded as an international emblem. It constitutes most desirable souvenir and memento of the children's monument to the "Knight of Liberty," the Universal Exposition of 1900 at Paris and the opening of the twentieth century. The limited number issued will make these coins extremely rare and in very great demand. For each 1,500 of our population there is a ratio of but one Lafayette dollar.

The first coin to be struck of the 50,000 will be presented by the President of the United States to the President of the French Republic.

Popular subscriptions for these coins will now be entered, and honored in the order received. The price fixed on them by the commission is two dollars. All orders for coins to be considered must be accompanied by payment in full and be in the hands of the commission on or before December 15, 1899, on which date the popular subscription closes. Drafts, currency or money orders will be accepted in payment. Drafts and money orders must be made payable to Edwin A. Potter, Treasurer of the commission.

The commission reserves the right to limit the number of coins allotted to each subscriber. Students of schools and colleges, who wish coins, should combine their orders in one subscription and send if possible through local bank.

Inquiries and subscriptions for coins to be addressed to Robert J. Thompson, Secretary, in care of American Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago.
